

BACKGROUND

This skills development course has been designed by TII for

- Research teams seeking to commercialise their research results;
- Knowledge transfer professionals responsible for bringing their organisation's exploitable research results to market;
- Technology transfer intermediaries advising and coaching companies and research centres in bringing their ideas to market.

It is unique for its delivery by practitioners for practitioners, the provision of ready-to-use, proven methodologies and the use of case studies to illustrate the theory and offer inspiring exercise material.

The training is delivered by an international team of trainers, who earn their living in the specialised area of their workshop.

PARTICIPATION

Registrations for the course should be made online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SJYLWSN>

Places are limited to 35 and the final date for registration is 22 June 2016. Further information about the course from TII at tii@tii.org
Applicants must have a good command of English in order to benefit fully from the training and must have a professional interest in innovation and the exploitation of new ideas/technology.
